Report on International Day for Biological Diversity 2023

Organized by Dept of Zoology, KCC

The International Day for Biological Diversity was observed in Kamrup College, Chamata (KCC), organized by the Department of Zoology in association with Science Forum, Kamrup College, Chamata. The students and teachers of 138 No. Kashinath Vidyamandir LP School, Rupiabathan, Nalbari were invited to participate in the event of Lecture cum Laboratory visit. The program commenced at 11:30 am with the welcome address given by Darathi Deori, Asst Professor, Dept of Zoology. The respected dignitaries: Kishore Kumar Talukdar (head teacher), Mamoni Devi (assistant teacher), and Dr. Sujan Kalita, Secretary of Science Forum (Asst Professor, Dept of Chemistry) were felicitated followed by a talk on biodiversity and the need for its conservation by Nipu Kumar Das, Asst Professor, Dept of Zoology. A lab visit was organized for the students which aimed at enhancing their knowledge about diverse animal species and appreciation of biodiversity conservation. The students participated with much enthusiasm. Three school students were rewarded for their active participation. In addition, there was an online photography contest (intra-college) arranged, focusing on the theme of the day. Two winners emerged from the competition, with Jinku Bezbaruah receiving the first prize and Sabita Medhi being awarded the second prize. All the science faculties of Kamrup College, Chamata, cooperated and extended their help in making the program a success. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Science Forum for their collaborative efforts in making this event a resounding success. Together, we had the opportunity to enlighten young minds about the significance of biological diversity and its importance for our planet's well-being.
