3.1 Together, these two parties shall work towards furthering cooperation in both education, training & academic research which will be mutually beneficial for both institutions.

3.2 Parties shall work in cooperation for research activities; joint training programs; exchange of faculty members; summer programs; student exchange; joint publications & sharing of information, etc. in addition to taking advantage of RGU's multi-disciplinary, inter-disciplinary, vocational degree thus, providing benefit to the students of the college under the NEP 2020 scenario.

4. Forms of Cooperation:

The Parties envisage the following cooperation within the scope of this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU).

4.1: Exchange of Faculty members

For planning and handling of academic programs and courses; organization of seminars, workshops and conferences including the exchange of mutual experiences in teaching, research, and industrial practices with prior approval from parent institutions. Honorarium, transportation, and accommodation/hospitality as per institution norms.

4.2: Exchange in Research

Through joint programs in research and development, including provision of Summer/Winter Internship Programme for the students of RGU and vice versa. During the period, either institution will provide hostel accommodation to the visiting students as per the institution norms. Prior approval and agreement of the head of the concerned department of the institutions is to be obtained to allow students to work in laboratories for projects, internships, etc. The Vice-Chancellor/Registrar/Principals of the universities/institutions will be the sole authority to grant final approval.

4.3: Joint Submission of Collaborative Projects

RGU faculty will involve some of the selected faculties of Kamrup College (depending upon their interest and expertise in a chosen domain) to be Co-investigators in their project proposals for funding and vice versa. Faculty members involved in any such projects will need to seek prior approval from respective Heads of the Institution.

4.4: Seminars / Symposia / Workshop/ Training Programs to be jointly organized

To jointly organize short-term continuing education programs, to organize seminars, conferences, training programs or workshops on topics of mutual interest, and invite faculty members from both the institutions to participate therein. However, for specific co-operation, projects shall be negotiated separately between the Parties and, in each specific case, shall be established as separate written agreements, stating the respective rights and obligations of the Parties.

4.5 Co-Curricular activities (Sports, culture, debate, quiz etc.)

RGU and Kamrup College may conduct some Inter-University joint events, joint camps, training for specific sports etc. with mutual consultation.

5. Financial Obligations:

There will be no financial obligations on both the parties under this agreement.

6. General Coordinators:

Each party shall designate an administrative office/ department to oversee and facilitate the implementation of any agreements arising out of this MoU.

7. Intellectual Property Rights:

RGU and Kamrup College agree to respect each other's right to intellectual property. Further, all rights linked to ideas, inventions and patents generated during the MoU shall remain the common intellectual property of the Parties. The Parties shall not pass on or give usage rights of such property to any third party without the consent of the other party.

8. Dispute Settlement:

In the event of any dispute or difference arising under this Agreement, the Parties shall try to discuss and arrive at an amicable resolution thereof. If the Parties fail to arrive at an amicable resolution within (thirty) 30 days of the dispute having arisen, the matter shall be referred to arbitration by a single arbitrator appointed pursuant to the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitral proceedings shall be held in Guwahati and the language of arbitration shall be English. The Parties agree that the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Parties. The arbitration tribunal shall also decide on the costs of the arbitration procedure.

9. Liability:

Except for loss or damages caused through gross negligence or intent, the Parties shall have no liability to each other hereunder.

10. Force Majeure:

Neither party shall be held responsible for non-fulfilment of their respective obligations under this MoU due to the exigency of one or more of the force majeure events such as but not limited to eventualities like floods, earthquakes, strikes, bandhs, lockouts, epidemics, riots and commotions, etc. provided on the occurrence and cessation or cessation of such events, the party affected thereby shall give notice in writing to the other party within one month of such occurrence or cessation. If the force majeure conditions continue beyond four months, the parties shall then mutually decide about the future course of action.

11. Legal Relationship:

This primary goal of the Memorandum of Understanding is to encourage the creation of cooperative and useful programmes that will benefit both the institutions' students and faculties while fostering friendly connection between the two parties.

Thus in support of their shared interests in the field of education, the Department of Chemistry, North Gauhati College and Department of Chemistry, Kamrup College Chamata have decided to collaborate on some activities, such as faculty exchange programmes, student exchange programmes and faculty improvement programmes, as and when deemed necessary.

Aims and Objectives:

In consideration of the academic areas of mutual interest on a basis of equality and reciprocity by this MoU, both the department have agreed to:

1. Cooperate in the exchange of information relating to their activities in teaching in the field of mutual interests.
2. Faculty from both the institutions will teach students in theory and practical classes as needed.
3. Plan joint workshop for the benefit of the academic staff and students from the two colleges.
4. Do cooperative fieldwork with students to improve the calibre of their research projects.
5. Launch cooperative outreach initiatives for improving neighbourhood.
6. To publish research books, book chapters and other academic journal in collaborative mode between the teachers.

The aim of the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is to achieve a broad balance in the respective contributions and benefits of the collaboration and this shall be subject to periodic review by both institutes. The collaborative activities as per this MoU shall be governed by the rules and regulations of both the institutions.

Anytime throughout the length of the agreement, either institution may end it by giving the other institution a three-month written notice.

Both the Department of Chemistry, North Gauhati College and Department of Chemistry, Kamrup College Chamata welcome this Memorandum of Understanding for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as enumerated above.
