A report on blood donation camp
Organized by
NSS unit, Kamrup College Chamata
&
KKHSOU study centre, Kamrup College Chamata
In collaboration with
Blood Centre, SMK Civil Hospital, Nalbari

Date and Time: 09/04/2024, 10 AM to 01 PM

Venue: Kamrup College Chamata

Introduction:

Blood donation is a very good deed. It is crucial and beneficial for humankind, society. A blood donation camp was held at Kamrup College Chamata on 09/04/2024.

The Event:

The process of donation was started around 10.30 AM. The event was inaugurated by Dr. Debendra Kumar Bezbaruah, principal, Kamrup College Chamata in presence of a number of faculties and students of the college. A short speech on the importance of blood donation was delivered by Doctor Utpal Das, a pathologist at SMK civil hospital, Nalbari who also supervised the whole process of blood donation in the event. Twenty four people donated blood in the camp which includes some faculties and students of Kamrup College Chamata. The process of donation was carried in a van owned by Assam Blood Transfusion Council. It was a van specially designed for such events. The donors were provided juice, water, sweets and fruits after the donation. The event ended around 1 PM as no more donors were available.

Acknowledgement:

The organizers are thankful to the blood centre, SMK civil hospital, Nalbari for facilitating the blood collection process. The organizers are thankful to the principal Dr. Debendra Kumar Bezbaruah and vice principal Dr. Kabita Choudhary for the initiative, the arrangements, the food and most importantly giving permission to organize such an event in a very short notice.

Conclusion:

The event was moderately successful. The participation was lower than expected. The organizers are sorry that they couldn't gather more donors. It was also felt that there is a prevailing fear among people against blood donation. The organizers think that an awareness programme for blood donation in future could improve the situation. The banner and some photographs of the event are attached in this report.

2. Making Jewellery and crafts

'Making of Jewellery and Craft'
Organised by
Women's Cell, Kamrup College, Chamata
Date: 07/03/2024
Venue: Community Hall

The Women's Cell, Kamrup College organised a workshop on 07/03/2024 entitled 'Making of Jewellery and Craft' to celebrate the International Women's Day, 8th March, 2024. The Workshop had to organise on 7th March, as the 8th March was Holiday on the occasion of Shivratri. This year the theme of the International Women's Day is 'Invest in Women: Accelerate Progress' with the motive of Economic Inclusion of the Women folk. That is why the Women's Cell, Kamrup College had decided to celebrate the International Women's Day with its basic theme mentioned above and to give a platform to the students for Self-reliance and Economic Uplift. With this objective the Workshop was organised to motivate and train the students to make Jewellery and Craft through which they could learn to earn from their artistic self.

Jayashree Barman, the India Book of Record holder for 'Making Smallest Assamese Japi and Sarai' was invited as the trainer. She trained the students how to make jewellery by using different materials. The students took interest in learning the art of making Jewellery and could make Jewellery by themselves within the Workshop. Thus, the outcome of the Workshop is remarkable because it served the motive of organising this kind of training for economic upliftment of the students.

The inauguration meeting of the Workshop was presided by Dipika Barman, President, Teachers' Unit, Kamrup College Chamata. Dr. Debendra Kr. Bezbaruah, Principal, Kamrup College, Chamata inaugurated the workshop and delivered a speech on the

3.Field Trip Programme , Dept. Of Economics

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS KAMRUP COLLEGE, CHAMATA-781306

Report on field trip and exposure visit to Bell Metal Cluster of Sarthebari

A field trip and exposure visit was organised on 30th March 2024 for the 6th semester students of our department of Economics to the historic bell metal industry of Assam located at Sarthebari in the district of Barpeta with an objective to understand about this industry.

The bell-metal industry of Assam is the second largest handicraft sector after bamboo craft. Bell-metal is an alloy of copper and tin and the craftsmen of this industry are referred to as 'Kahar' or 'Orja'. The objects made are mostly used in domestic and religious purposes. Large number households carry out this industry that expertises in making Sarais, Bota, Ban-Batis, Thals, glasses etc.

We visited the houses of the artisans who are divided into different clusters based on the processing and manufacturing of different products out of bell metal.

Principal

We also visited the office of The Assam Co Operative Bell Metal Utensil Manufacturing Society Ltd which is currently a 84 years 7 months old Society incorporated on 18-Aug-1939, having its registered office located at 58, Sarukhetri, Sarthebari Nasatra Road, Sarthebari, Assam.

The major activity of The Assam Co Operative Bell Metal Utensil Manufacturing Society Ltd is Manufacturing, Sub-classified into Other manufacturing and is primarily engaged in the Manufacture of other products .

The students had a great opportunity to interact with the artisans and the officials of the cooperative society and gained depth knowledge about the bell metal industry of Assam.
