

Report on Departmental Seminar
Department of History
KAMRUP COLLEGE, CHAMATA

Title: Role of Assam in Quit India Movement

Date: 09/08/2024

Venue: Digital Class Room

History Study Circle of the Department of History, Kamrup College, Chamata has been organising Departmental Seminar on various topics to understand the subject by the students. Through discussions, it enhances the presentation skill of the department's students.

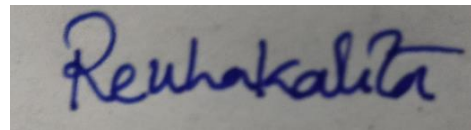

The Department has organised a Departmental Seminar on 09/08/2024 to revisit the Quit India Movement which was started on 08/08/1942. The title of the seminar was “Role of Assam in Quit India Movement”. The students of the department had participated in the seminar among which 17 students presented their paper.

The seminar was presided over by Tilak Sarma, Head of the Department. He spoke on the role of Assam in the Quit India Movement in his introductory address. Besides, he explained on the importance of oral sources to reconstruct and revisit the Indian national movement.

Dr. Debendra Kr. Bezbaruah, Principle of the College had also present on the occasion and delivered a lecture on different aspects of the National Movement of India in general and Quit India Movement in Assam in specific.

After presentation of papers an open discussion held and it was conducted by Dr. Rekha Kalita, Assistant Professor, Department of History which enabled the students to engage more on the topic. She also discussed on the various sub topics like role of women in, role of students, role of labourers, extremist activities during the Quit India Movement and the aftermath of the Movement.

Another faculty member of the Department Deepsikha Barman exhibit a documentary bearing the original footages of the Quit India Movement featuring the prominent leaders of that time. She spoke on the importance of digital sources in present era to study history.

Dr. Rekha Kalita

Secretary,

History Study Circle

Department of History,

Kamrup College, Chamata

