GENDER BUDGETTING

A REPORT

The department of Economics has organized an institutional level seminar on GENDER BUDGETTING on 21-09-2024 at Digital classroom. The seminar was organized for the students to make aware about gender equality, empowerment of women and children. The programme was chaired by Dr. Biswajit Das, Associate Professor and HOD, Dept. of Economics, Kamrup College, Chamata and attended as Resource person by Dr. Saiki Talukdar, Asst. Prof. and HOD, Dept. of Political Science, KCC, Nalbari. More than 50 students and five faculty members were present in the seminar. Dr. Talukdar delivered a fruitful speech on Gender budget. According to her Gender budgeting is a policy strategy that integrates a gender perspective into the budgetary process which aims to assess how government spending and resource allocation impact men and women differently. Despite India's progress in various sectors, significant gender disparities persist in areas such as education, health, employment, and political participation. Gender budgeting is necessary to address these disparities and to
