On 26th October 2024, the Women's Cell of Kamrup College, Chamata in collaboration with 138 no. Kashinath Vidyamandir Primary School organized an Awareness Programme on "Good Touch and Bad Touch" for the students of the School. The programme was specifically designed and organized keeping in mind the urgent need of the children to prioritize and protect themselves. Tarangini Das, Assistant Professor - Department of Education, Kamrup College, Chamata and secretary of women’s Cell arranged and initiated the session followed by a group song performed by some students of the school. Bhaswab Jyoti Goswami Assistant Professor Department of Social Work, Assam Don Bosco University was invited as a resource person. Dr. Rita Moni Das, Associate Professor Department of Education and Vice President of Women's Cell Kamrup College, Chamata graced the occasion as the chairperson. Principal Dr. Debendra Kumar Bezbaruah, Vice principal Dr. Kabita Choudhury of Kamrup College Chamata and Head Master Mr. Kishor Talukdar of 138 no. Kashinath Vidyamandir Primary School along with other faculty members of both the institutions attended the programme.

The programme was organized specifically for the students and guardians and arranged in accordance with the understanding level of primary school children. The programme was arranged keeping in mind the necessity of creating awareness and knowledge on this sensitive topic so that the children are able to differentiate between safe touch and unsafe touch. Mr. Goswami interacted with the students and taught them the concept of good touch and bad touch through dramatization. He carefully depicted the critical scenario and taught them to talk to their near and dear ones in a situation of emergency. Bhaswab Jyoti Goswami also had a session with the guardians. He told the guardians the important role they have to play for the protection of their children.

The parents and guardians along with the teachers of the school appreciated the initiative taken by the Women's Cell of Kamrup College, Chamata.
